

290

Total Employees

2009

Year Of Maximum Hires

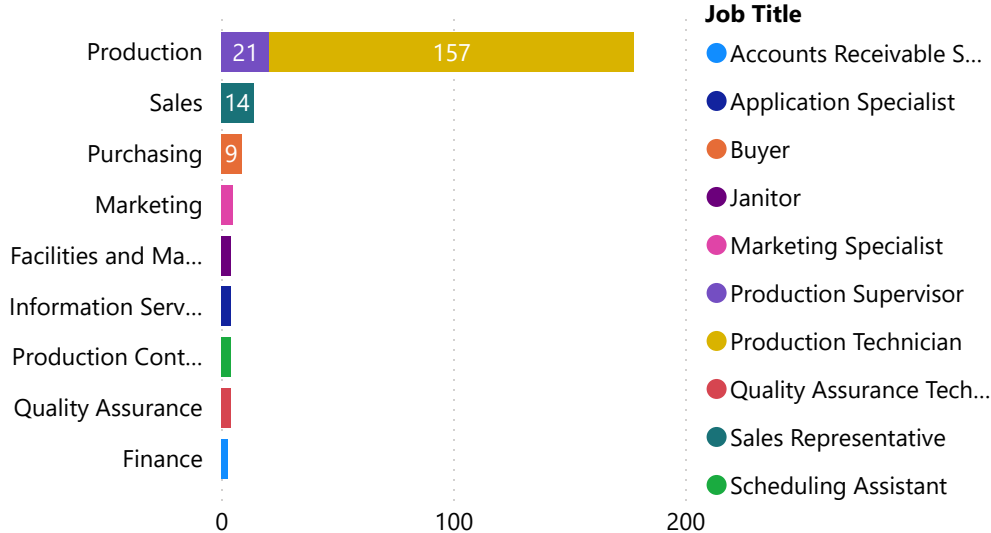

Production

Max Headcount Dept

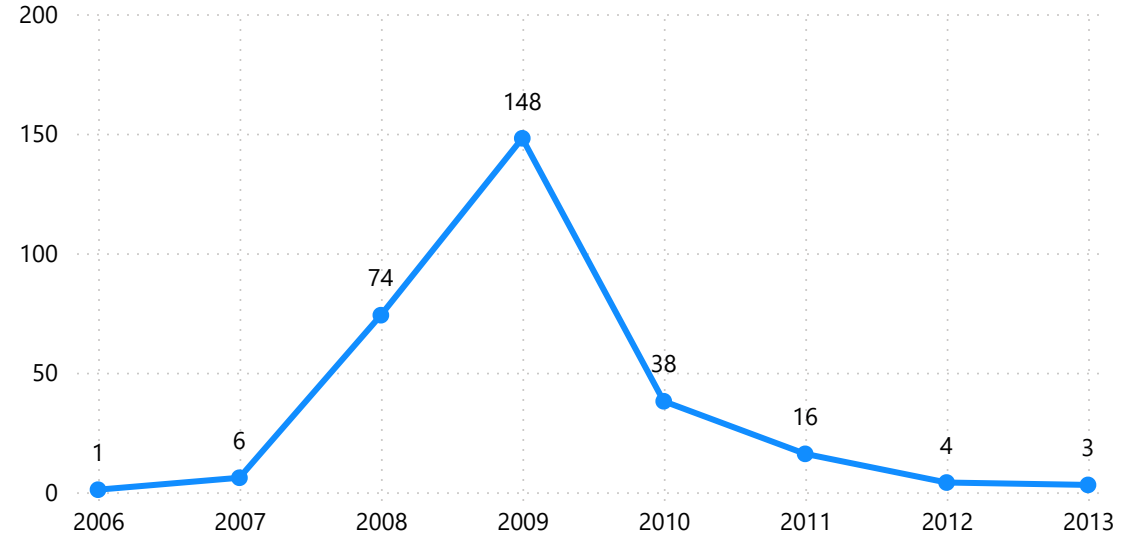

4

Maximum Organization Depth

Organization architecture (TOP 10)

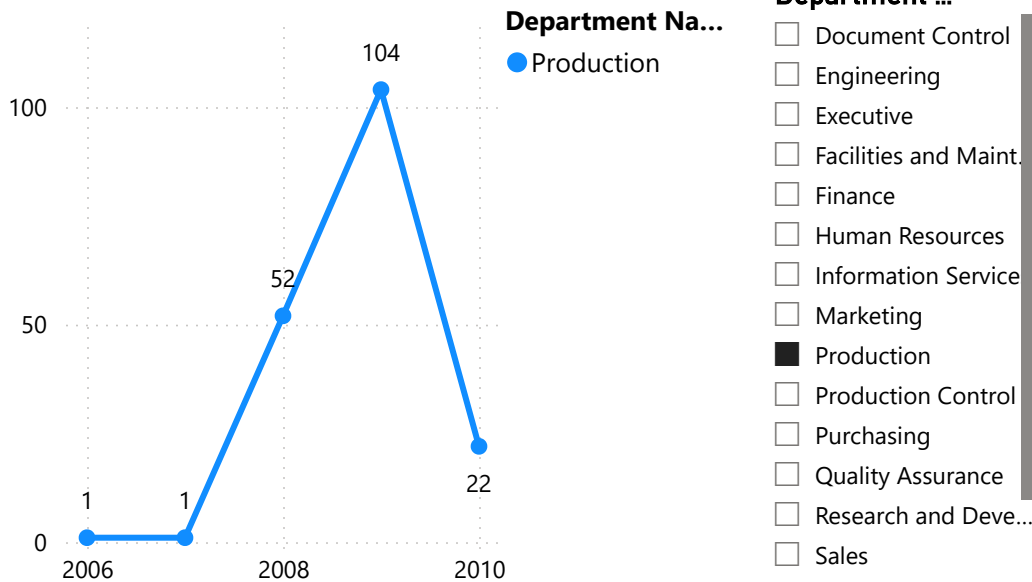

Employees Hired By Year

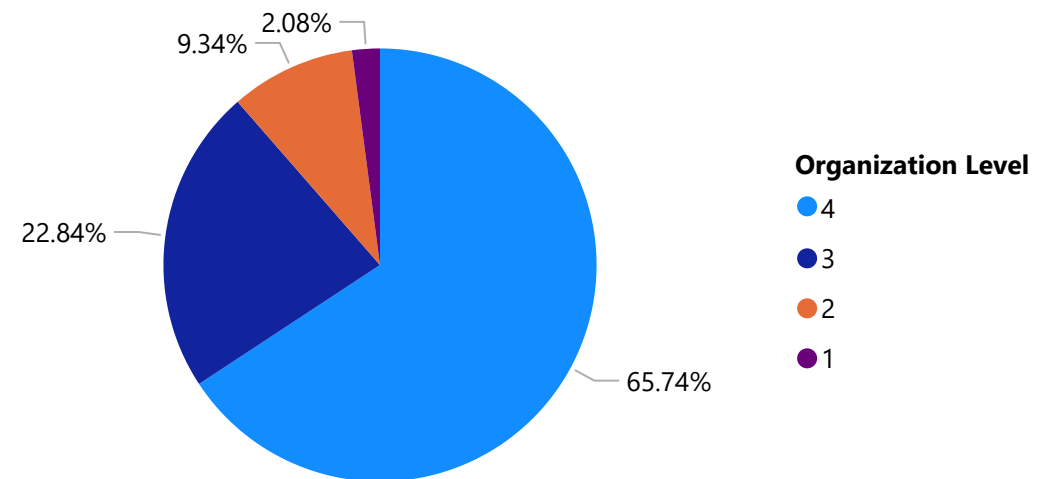

KEY INSIGHTS

- Production department dominates the workforce.
- Hiring peaked in 2009.
- Production department has outnumbered in the hiring process in 2009.
- The organization follows a clear hierarchical pyramid structure, with a large base of operational staff (Level 4).

Department Growth Over Time

Employees: Organization Level

KEY INSIGHTS

- Executive compensation (CEO) is significantly higher than all other roles.
- No gender pay gap is observed within comparable job roles and departments.
- Shipping & Receiving department shows the highest employee retention.
- The Production department is the largest workforce segment, accounting for 179 employees.

$125.5

Highest Pay (CEO)

13.94

Salary Inequality Ratio

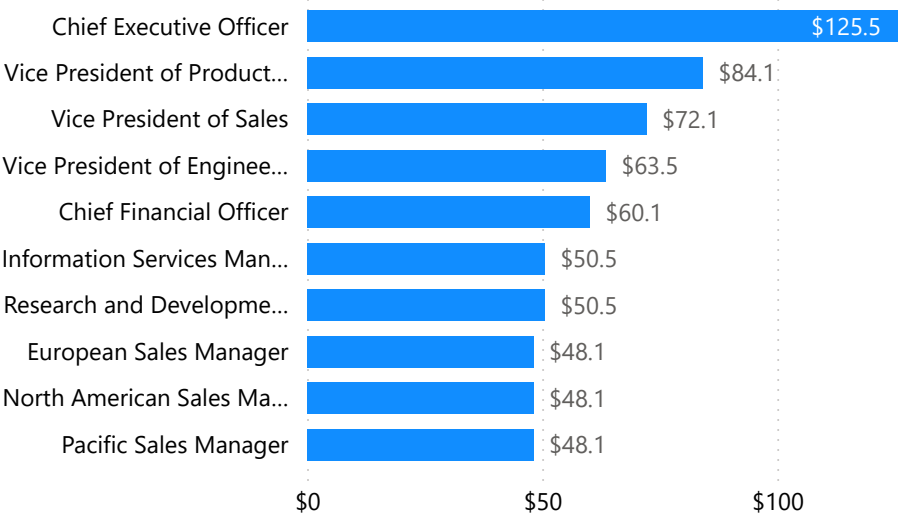

16.90

Average Employee Tenure

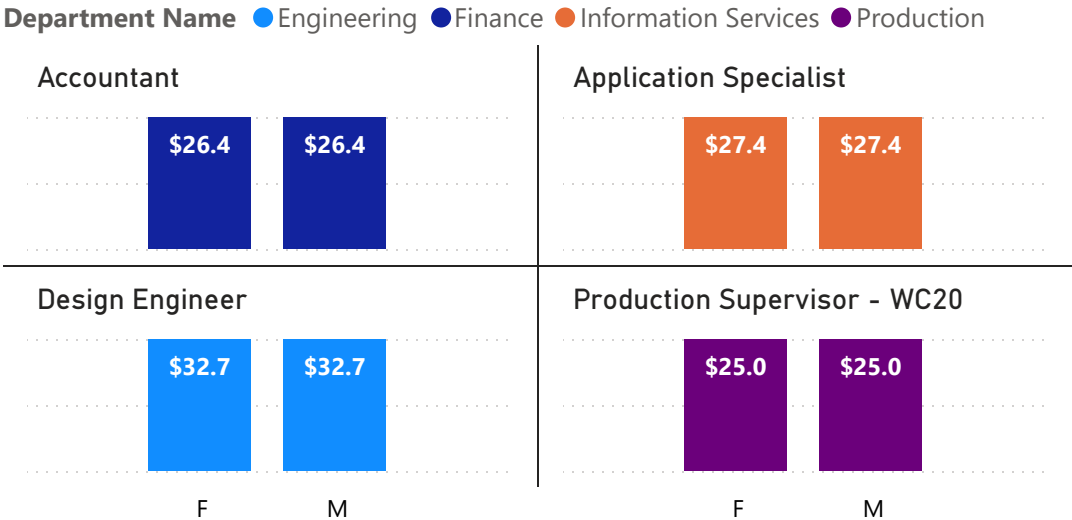

1.72%

Internal Mobility Rate

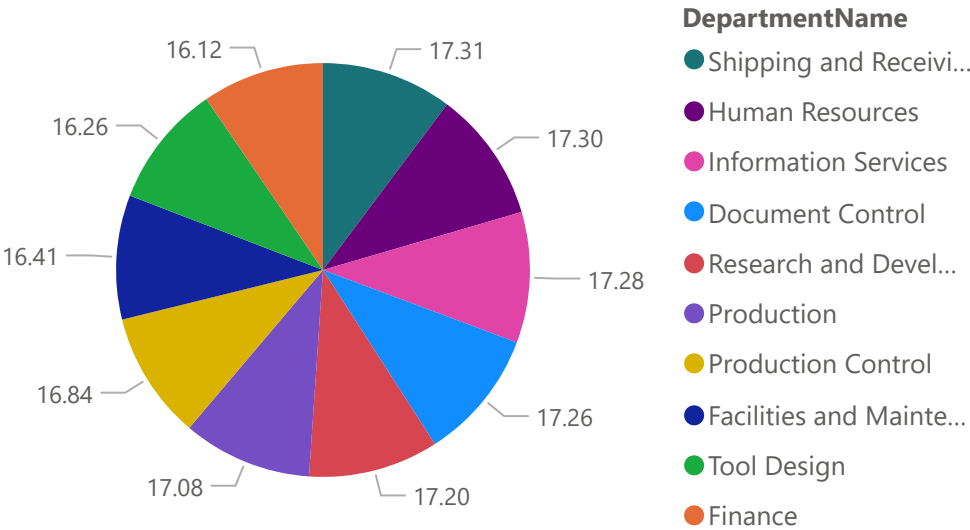

Salary Distribution Across Job Roles (TOP 10)

Average Salary Across Gender: Same Job Title

Average Tenure of Employee Across Department

Employee Distribution Across Department

